On Saturday, May 22, 2010 1-5pm (raindate: Sunday, May 23), Earth Celebrations launches its' 2nd annual Earth Celebrations' Hudson River Pageant: to restore the Hudson River and address climate change in New York City. The ecological parade and performance art event is directed by theatrical pageant director, Felicia Young, Founder/Director of Earth Celebrations a non-profit environmental arts organization and creator of the Procession to Save Our Gardens for 15 years in the East Village..

The Hudson River Pageant features a magnificent parade of giant 15-foot river species puppets, spectacular costumes representing oysters, seahorses, blue crabs, wetlands, and over 70 species of local fish. The river species will dance their way from the World Financial Center Plaza / North Cove Harbor at 1pm-(outside the WFC Winter Garden) along the waterfront to Horatio Street in the Hudson River Park. Music, dance, performances, songs, and poetry highlighting the river, and its' species, habitats, and issues, include an Oyster Garden Planting, Live Fish Release, River Cleansing, and Boat Dance. The performances are presented at the various piers and significant sites along the parade route, in the downtown portion of the Hudson River Park from 1-5pm.

HUDSON RIVER PAGEANT HIGHLIGHTS:

The pageant is a magnificent creation of art, performance and community engagement to honor and restore the Hudson and address climate change. Youth and community people created the magnificent puppets and costumes through many month of workshops with distinguished Artists-in Residence, Michele Brody and Lucrecia Novoa, at The World Financial Center Courtyard Gallery, through the in-kind Sponsorship of Brookfield Properties/>arts World Financial Center.

The Hudson River Pageant features a vibrant parade of elaborate river species costumes and giant puppets led by New York City's popular Hungry March Band, and the Afro-Dominican Kalunga Neg Mawon Band, and a conch shell chorus. 13 site-specific performances at piers and significant locations along the route in the Hudson River Park include:

EARTH CELEBRATIONS

Earth Celebrations was founded in 1991 by theatrical pageant director, Felicia Young, as a not-for-profit 501c3 organization in New York City, dedicated to fostering ecological awareness and reviving the arts at the center of community life. Earth Celebrations innovative environmental and arts programs include: theatrical pageants, exhibitions, performances, art & ecology/puppet & costume workshops, internships, artist residencies, and partnerships with schools, community centers, and gardens. For 15 years Earth Celebrations produced the popular Rites of Spring: Garden Pageant and Winter Pageant on the Lower East Side, which engaged over 5,000 participants annually, and led to the preservation of many of the community gardens on the Lower East Side and throughout New York City.
